Workshop -Understanding the EU Crisis. Legal, Political and Philosophical Interpretations
18 May 2019 – Sponsored by the University of Rome Tor Vergata
Sala Belvedere, Villa Mondragone*

Program

9.15-9.30 Opening Speech - Prof. Claudio Corradetti, University of Rome Tor Vergata

“Europe will not be made all at once…” (The Schuman Declaration 9 May 1950)

Keynote Speakers

10.30-11.30 Prof. Danny Pieters, KU Leuven, Belgium, Honorary President of the Belgian Senate, “Critical Impressions of the Functioning of the European Union”.

11.30-11.50 Coffee Break

13.00-14.30 Lunch

Invited Speakers

15.15-16.00 – Dr. Lydie Cabane, Leiden University - “The European Government of Crisis”.

16.00-16.15 Coffee Break

16.15-17.00 – Dr. Massimo Fichera, University of Helsinki – “Communal constitutionalism and the populist claims: the tension between the economic and social constitution in the European Union”.

17.00 Concluding Remarks

Attendance is free but registration is mandatory due to limited places available (if interested send an email to Claudio.Corradietti@uniroma2.it).*Via Frascati, 51, 00078 Monte Porzio Catone RM. A limited number of shuttle busses will be available departing from the bus Terminal at Anagnina metro station A to Villa Mondragone and return (8.45 am/17.30 pm).